

Venetian Majesty & Spectacular Croatia: The Northern Adriatic

VENICE → DUBROVNIK

7 NIGHTS ON WIND SPIRIT

JUN 18, 2027 – JUN 25, 2027

Summer is perfect for Adriatic vacation escapes to Italy, Slovenia, and Croatia. This seven-day cruise offers ample opportunities for relaxing on beaches and exploring shady Medieval-era lanes. Browse wine and local treats at a bustling farmers market in a small village outside Piran. Crane your neck skyward to admire saints and ceilings inside Ravenna's Basilica of San Vitale--one small part of a larger UNESCO World Heritage Site. Wander between Roman gates and a Byzantine chapel in Pula prior to sampling acclaimed olive oils and Croatian bread outside Rovinj. Explore vineyards and pastures as you visit a traditional family farmhouse and taste artisan foods outside Zadar. Board a small inflatable boat bound for a secluded beach and quiet bliss beyond the 13th-century cathedral and old town of Trogir. Peruse small shops in Dubrovnik's oldest quarter for unique gifts and family keepsakes.

Piran, Lake Bled with Island

Lake Bled has attracted numerous visitors for centuries, with its immense natural beauty, hot springs and serene climate. Beautiful hotels, walking paths, tennis and golf courses, a casino, rowing regattas and nearby natural and cultural sites are only a few of the reasons that this has become a popular place for both tourists and locals. You will depart the pier for a scenic 2-hour drive towards Bled, where upon arrival you will board a boat for a cruise of the Lake and a visit to its famous island which is situated in the middle. Landing at the island, one of the sites you will visit is the "Wish Bell," certainly the most significant point of interest for visitors since the Middle Ages. The Bell hangs from the tower on top of the chapel roof. According to popular legend, a young widow who lived at Bled Castle mourned her husband who had been killed by brigands and gathered all her gold and silver and had a bell cast for the chapel on Bled Island. When the bell was being transported to the island, a terrible storm caused the boat to overturn, drowning the sailors and sinking the bell to the bottom of the lake. The young widow, now even more devastated, entered a convent. After her death, the Pope donated another bell for the Bled Church. Legend has it that those who ring the bell to honor her and make a wish will see their wish come true. From here you will continue to the lunch venue, where you will enjoy your meal with a nice view over the lake before having some free time to explore Lake Bled on your own. Please note: This tour is not wheelchair accessible. Wear comfortable walking shoes and bring a jacket.

Piran, Skocjan Cave - UNESCO

Enjoy your day exploring the UNESCO site of Skocjan Caves , rich in importance for the region and powerful in their beauty. You will take a 45-minute drive to the caves where there will be time to use the restroom before entering the caves. The walk in the caves will take 2 hours, during which you will admire the beautiful Reka River and limestone formations. The Skocjan Caves are a unique natural phenomenon, the creation of the Reka River. The Reka River springs from below the Snežnik plateau and flows some 34 miles on the surface. After reaching the Karst, the limestone surface, the river not only deepens its riverbed through erosion, but also by means of corrosion - it dissolves the limestone. After the visit you will be take a short drive to an organic tourist farm and be treated to traditional homemade local and seasonal produce, dry cuts, organic juice and dessert. You will then have a 45-minute drive back to the pier. Please note: The visit of the cave involves 2 hours of walking over uneven surface, with spots of high altitude. Wear comfortable walking shoes and a jacket due to the temperature in the cave.

Rovinj, Hum; The Smallest Town in the World

Depart the pier for a scenic drive to Roc Village, a cultural monument with well-preserved medieval town walls, a Roman lapidarium, a Venetian bombardica cannon, and a functional watchtower. Historic churches include the 11th-century Romanesque Church of St. Anthony, the small St. Roch Church with 14th-century frescoes, and the St. Bartholomew Parish Church, featuring an 85-foot-high (26-metre-high) steeple from 1676. After a short walking tour, visit a local artist's workshop for a fresco presentation before continuing to Hum. En route, pass Glagolitic Alley, a scenic route lined with monuments honoring the history of the Glagolitic alphabet. Perched on a 1,145-foot-high (349-metre-high) hill, Hum has retained its medieval architecture and is often called the world's smallest town, with just 21 residents recorded in 2011. Explore its historic sites, including a 16th-century bell tower, the Church of St. Jerome with its classical façade from 1802, and the 'Glagolitic wall writings' among the oldest Croatian Glagolitic literary artifacts. Visit the Museum of Hum, home to 1,500 artifacts in 11 thematic rooms showcasing daily life and crafts over the past 150 years, including an old pharmacy, school, distillery, tailor shop, and fresco painting workshop. End your tour at the Museum of Hum Aura and Distillery Bar Aura, housed in a medieval dwelling that later became the City Lodge, where local leaders once gathered to make important decisions.

The natural landscape of the Rovinj archipelago and the coastline are part of the "Landscapes of Outstanding Value" and you will have the opportunity to see it. The indented coast, holm oak, Alpine and Bruce pine forests and the special agricultural spaces amaze and capture with their beauties. This protected area stretches from St. John's Cape to Barbariga and encompasses all 20 Rovinj islands and islets and the coastal area. Lim Fjord is one of the most beautiful natural sites in Istria and represents a sunken canyon valley in karst. It is one of the most beautiful fjords outside Norway offering many hidden sports to the ones coming to visit. The water in the fjord is less transparent and less salty than the open sea due to many springs, and the temperatures of the water in the fjord fluctuates. The water here also contains a large amount of plankton and oxygen so it provides abundant flora and fauna. The area is a natural hatching site for many fish species but is known for its oysters which even impressed Anthony Bourdain. The best way to visit Rovinj Archipelago and Lim Fjord is by boat, so join this adventure and see the beauty from a different perspective while trying the tasty shellfish of this region. Something here will capture your heart. A Roman amphitheater, 9th century churches, and museums packed with Byzantine-era artworks crowd the peninsula that tidily contains the Old Town. It's a tempting way to spend the day for sure. While away the day listening to Zadar's giant Sea Organ, a haunting musical improv performed by the surging Adriatic or share a bench with a sun-drunk cat as you bite into a truffle.

Zadar, Flavors & Sights of Zadar

Your tour will begin on the pier and soon you will find yourself in the heart of this magnificent Old Town. This walking tour includes a visit to the Cathedral of St. Anastasia, the finest example of Romanesque architecture in Zadar and built in 1324. It is dedicated to St. Anastasia, whose stone sarcophagus is in the apse to the left of the high altar. Further on your way you will pass close to the Church of St. Donatus which is believed to have been built at the beginning of the 9th century. It is circular in plan, with three naves. You will visit the 16th century St Mary Church with a Romanesque bell-tower built at the beginning of the 12th century. On the upper floor of the convent, open to the public are rooms containing a collection of goldsmith's work, relics and other valuable items. Your tour will end with a Marascino Liqueur Tasting. Liqueur production in Zadar is almost 400 years old. This liqueur is a bittersweet, clear liqueur flavored with Marasca cherries, which are grown in Dalmatia, Croatia, mostly around the city of Zadar. Honey is also part of the ancient recipe. The recipe for this liqueur was created by the apothecaries of the Dominican monastery at Zara, now Zadar, in Dalmatia, at the beginning of the 16th century. Please note: This tour involves an extensive amount of walking over cobbled and uneven surfaces, with 40 steps to reach the collection of goldsmiths' work inside the Church of St. Mary. Proper attire is required to enter the religious sites; shorts and bare shoulders are not permitted. Wear comfortable walking shoes. The tour sequence may vary.

As you paddle through a spectacular canyon, you'll be surrounded by living travertine waterfalls and a rich variety of wildlife. Keep your eyes peeled for native fish and birds in their natural habitats, adding a sense of wonder to your journey. Experience the thrill of navigating gentle rapids (Grade 2, with some Grade 3 sections) on the Zrmanja River-perfect for those new to the sport while still offering an exciting challenge. If conditions permit, we'll stop at the beautiful Krupa waterfalls, where you can take a refreshing swim beneath their cascading waters. The adventure concludes with a light picnic lunch and refreshments, where you can relax and share stories with your group, completing a day of natural beauty and fun.

Celebrities from Prince Harry to Beyoncé have made Hvar their go-to place. Follow the city walls to sweeping views from the fortress on the hill. Head to the town square for a look at the Venetian Cathedral or find the large bay of Stari Grad on an optional tour to this famous UNESCO site.

Hvar, Walking Tour of Hvar

Explore on foot the town of Hvar, which sports a thick-walled fortress overlooking the harbor. In the very heart of the port is a large arsenal that houses Europe's first community theater (1612), and three bell towers that soar above the jumble of tiled rooftops, pointing to the source of Hvar's magic: the sun and limitless blue skies. In the town, the streets and people converge in an expansive piazza, the largest in all of Dalmatia, which connects the older part of town to the 15th century side. This is a pedestrian-only area. Your guide will lead you to the Cathedral of St. Stephen , with its treasury and bell tower. Walk to the 15th century Franciscan monastery with its old refectory, and the church with its remarkable collection of paintings. Please note: As this is tour is on foot, comfortable walking shoes are recommended.
